Hi Winanne,

Thank you for your email. Directors Order 0687-9K5SPE is administrative in nature as it "closes" or "removes" a requirement of a previous Order that was issued 14 years ago. The rationale is outlined in Directors Order 0687-9K5SPE.

Hopefully this provides clarification.

Sandra, can you please elaborate on Director's Order 0687-9K5SPE being "administrative in nature as it revokes the requirements of a November 23, 2000 Provincial Officer Order"?

On page 3 of the Order it reads "Effective Immediately, I hereby revoke Director's Order Number P636001 as amended" and also states "Revocation of the Director's Order #P636001 - because of the developments since 2001 noted above, it is no longer a Ministry requirement to remove the Waste Salt/Slag from the site."

I am failing to see how that revocation is administrative, or to see how it relates to a Provincial Officer Order?

Can you please elaborate?

Thank you,

Winanne

Hi All,

Please find attached the final meeting minutes from the December 6, 2013, Thane Public Liaison Committee meeting. Also, attached is Director's Order Number 0687-9K5SPE. This order is administrative in nature as it revokes the requirements of a November 23, 2000 Provincial Officer Order.

Additionally, this Director's Order states:

"If conditions change and in the event that it is necessary, the Ministry has the authority under the EPA to require further action, either on a voluntary basis or through the issuance of an order."

I thought this information was provided last year but understand some of you may not have received it.
