Dear Sir:-

Major B. A. Gordon called by appointment at this office this morning, and we thought it well to take down his statement, and herewith enclose you a copy of the same, which is certainly a very gloomy one.

Under the circumstances we think the Executors should collect all moneys outstanding in the different banks, and any mortgage interest etc. that they can put their hands on.

We have written the Imperial Bank advising them that we intend to take out the money standing to Miss Tremayne's credit in the bank, and we think this ought to be attended to at once, unless the bank may put up some claim of which we are unaware at the present time.

A copy of this letter has been sent to your co-executor.

Yours truly,

CLARK McPHERSON CAMPBELL & JARVIS.
